

STOCKHOLMS STADSMISSION

/Crossroads

Crossroads* is an advice and support centre for EU citizens and third country nationals with a residence permit in another EU country living in vulnerability or homelessness in Stockholm.

At Crossroads you have the opportunity to visit our day centre and speak with our staff who can offer support, advice and information. The agency is open to those whom are EU citizen and third country nationals with a residence permit in another EU-country. Likewise, a large variety of languages are spoken at Crossroads, providing the opportunity to receive consultation in numerous translations.

Crossroads has two areas of support; a basic needs section and an information section.

Basic Needs:

This section is split between a men's and a women's section there is access to showers, laundry and clothes (if required). There is also a common area for all where one can receive free breakfast, lunch, and access to computers.

Information:

Here there is opportunity to meet the EU-advisors and receive information and advice pertaining to the Swedish system, authorities and how one can establish oneself in Stockholm.

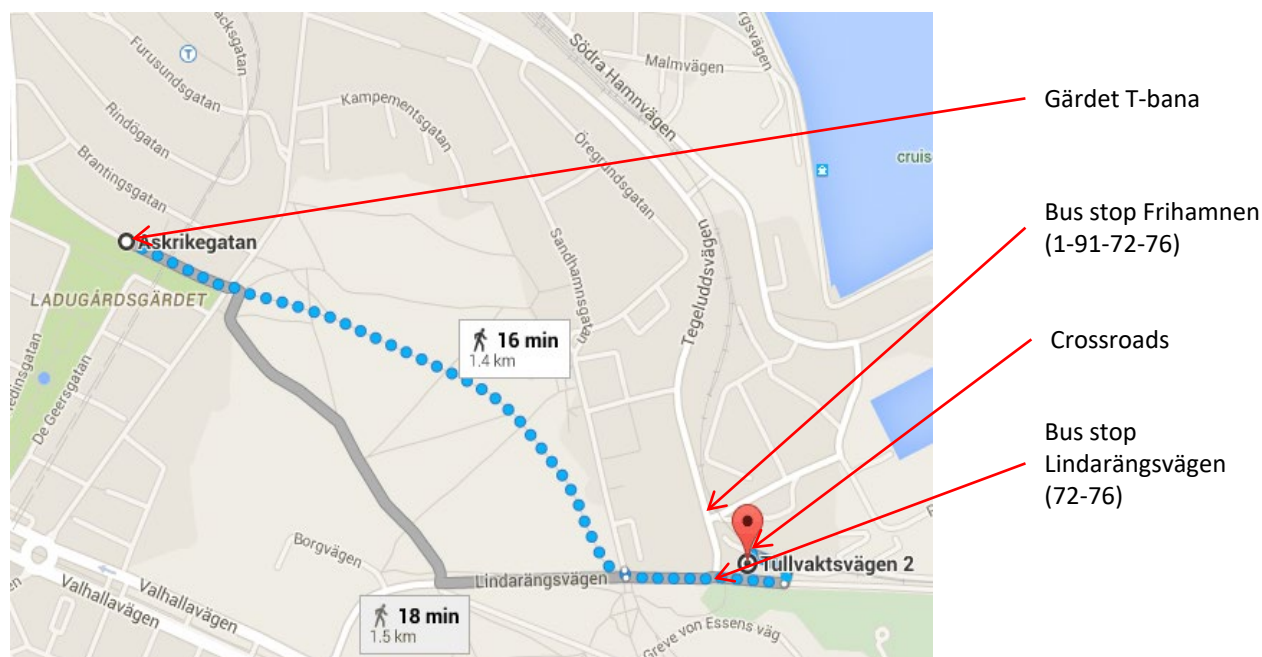

There are additionally many volunteers at Crossroads whom offer help with various activities such as: Swedish language training (SpråkCafe), writing CV's/ job seeking, medical (Läkare i Världen once a week), and so forth. These however, depend on the availability of the volunteers.
